Disclosure and Consent

Laser Tattoo Removal

This consent form is designed to provide the necessary information to decide whether or not to undergo laser tattoo removal treatments.

The purpose of this procedure is removal of the tattoo or to make the pattern as unrecognizable as possible by lightening the tattoo pigment. Anesthesia with local injectable, topical, or no anesthesia may be used. The laser energy is passed through the outer layer of the skin, directly targeting the tattoo ink. The laser disrupts the ink allowing the body's immune system to break it down and get rid of it.

Alternative treatment methods include camouflaging with makeup, tattooing over with a second tattoo, abrasive or acid treatments, treatment with a CO_2 laser, surgical removal, or no treatment at all.

Results vary and no guarantees can be made that a specific patient will benefit from treatment or achieve any level of improvement. Multiple treatments will be necessary to achieve desired results.

The possible risks of the procedure include but are not limited to:

- Pain, bruising, swelling, redness, blistering
- There is a risk of scarring, which can be permanent
- Hypopigmentation (lighter pigmentation) or hyperpigmentation (darker pigmentation)
- Infection
- Bleeding
- Residual tattoo pigment or persistence of tattoo pattern is possible

Patients with darker skin types have an increased risk of complicatiorns such as hypopigmentation, hyperpigmentation, bums. and scarring.

My signature below certifies that I have fully read this consent form and understand the information provided to me regarding the proposed procedure. I have been adequately informed about the procedure including the potential benefits, limitations, and alternative treatments, and I have had all my questions and concerns answered to my satisfaction.

Laser Tattoo Removal

Prior to treatment

- Immediately after treatment, apply a wrapped cool compress or wrapped ice pack to the treated areas for fifteen minutes every 1–2 hours.
- The area may feel warm, appear swollen, reddish, bruised or have pinpoint bleeding. Blistering or scabbing can occur particularly if ice is not applied as directed, and will generally heal in one to two weeks.
- You can shower/bathe 24 hours after your tattoo removal procedure.
- Discomfort typically resolves in 1–2 days. During this time you may take over-the-counter acetaminophen if needed.
- If the skin is irritated (without scabs or bleeding), apply sunscreen SPF 30 or greater daily. You may put a bandage of gauze and paper tape over the area if desired, but this is not needed.
- If the skin is not intact (with scabs or bleeding) use bacitracin or Aquaphor daily to keep the area moist. Place a bandage with a non-adherent gauze and tape every day until all scabs are fully healed. Then use sunscreen SPF 30 or greater daily.
- If mild itchiness occurs, use over-the-counter 1% hydrocortisone on the treated area once the skin is healed.
- If your arm or leg was treated, rest and elevate the treated area for at least 12 hours.
- You may resume light activities 48 hours after treatment but strenuous exercise should be avoided for 1 week. Activities such as swimming can be resumed after 2 weeks or once all scabbing/crusts have fully healed.

After treatment

- Avoid direct sun exposure to the tattoo and tanning beds for the duration of your tattoo removal treatments.
- Avoid using self-tanning and bronzing products on the tattoo.
- Apply an SPF 30 sunscreen or higher to any exposed treated area until the treatment area is completely healed.
- Generally your next treatment will be scheduled for six weeks. Reschedule if your skin is not fully healed (the tattoo area should not have a shiny appearance).
